

English Grammar Workbook Series: Present to Past

This workbook contains sentences in present and a space below them where the student can practice writing the past version of the sentence. Answers are given at the end of the file. This can be used as a homework, classwork for beginners in english language learning.

For example:

Present - The boy writes a letter.

Past - The boy wrote a letter.

Another example:

Present - Is he sick?

Past - Was he sick?

1. He wants a friend.

2. She goes to school.

3. I am happy here.

4. You are not here.

5. Where is he?

6. Why are you not coming here?

7. Is there a problem?

8. Who is that in the black car?

9. My friend is coming to the town this Tuesday.

10. My daughter is happy.

11. Is your boss in the city?

12. He wants a different chocolate.

13. She works at school.

14. John is not happy here.

15. He is from Sydney.

16. Who knows this?

17. What is your uncle's name?

18. He uses his left hand to write.

19. Are you serious?

20. Why don't you tell me the problem?

21. are you scared?

22. I jump when I am happy.

23. This cartoon scares me.

24. Is there some work for me?

25. Is honey sweeter than milk?

26. You are welcome to this poor house.

27. Is there an umbrella with you?

28. You can not imagine my excitement for this movie.

29. Can some help me?

30. He should come here sometimes.

31. Why is everone not in the office?

Answers

1. He wanted a friend.
2. She went to school.
3. I was happy here.
4. You were not here.
5. Where was he?
6. Why were you not coming here?
7. Was there a problem?
8. Who was that in the black car?
9. My friend was coming to the town this Tuesday.
10. My daughter was happy.
11. Was your boss in the city?
12. He wanted a different chocolate.
13. She worked at school.
14. John was not happy here.
15. He was from Sydney
16. Who knew this?
17. What was your uncle's name?
18. He used his left hand to write.
19. Were you serious?
20. Why didn't you tell me the problem.
21. were you scared?
22. I jumped when I was happy.
23. This cartoon scared me.
24. Was there some work for me?
25. Was honey sweeter than milk?
26. You were welcome to this poor house.
27. Was there an umbrella with you?
28. You could not imagine my excitement for this movie.
29. Could some help me?
30. He should have come here sometimes.

31. Why was everyone not in the office?